OUR SELECTION

The aspect that struck us most of I Contadini is the link with the territory and tradition. The vegetables are all produced on the farm, with integrated production, in the fields near the plant, in the province of Lecce in Puglia. The vegetables are dried in the sun on racks like provides for tradition, it is in fact an ancient practice and now almost totally abandoned because it is difficult and delicate, but which offers a result incomparable organoleptic

CURIOSITY

Cultivated in the Apulian soils suitable for the growth of this variety and harvested by hand in the summer

SUGGESTIONS

Ideal for an appetizer based on cured meats
