

FRISELLINE CLASSICHE DI GRANO DURO

CODE	95009
COUNTRY OF ORIGIN	Italy, Apulia
WEIGHT	150 g per piece

Small durum wheat friselle typical of Salento, perfect for aperitifs

DESCRIPTION	Cooked loaves, cut in half and biscuits; they are made with durum wheat grown and ground in Puglia
APPEARANCE	Similar to friselle but smaller and more yielding to the bite, slightly golden
TASTE	Fragrant and typical of wheat; crunchy at the bite but not excessively hard so that they do not need to be wet with water before consumption
PRODUCER	I Contadini - Ugento (LE) - Apulia
OUR SELECTION	The farm I Contadini, today in the third generation, was born in one of the most suitable lands for the cultivation of vegetables, Puglia, more precisely in Ugento, in Salento in the province of Lecce. He won us over for his very short chain at km 0 and the integrated agriculture that he has always carried on
SUGGESTIONS	Unlike friselle are ready to use and don't need to be wet; to munch as for the snack, they are perfect to be garnished and served for an aperitif Salento
