

PICCOLE SARDINE PICCANTI

CODE	95984
COUNTRY OF ORIGIN	Portugal
WEIGHT	Net weight: 90 g (Drained weight: 63 g)

Small sardines dipped in chilli oil

DESCRIPTION

Small sardines of Atlantic or Mediterranean origin, eviscerated and left whole, seasoned with spicy oil

APPEARANCE

The skin is still silvery, the flesh is clear, firm and compact in the mouth

TASTE

Spicy and slightly hot, with a good savouriness; melt-in-the-mouth texture and not greasy at all

PRODUCER

Josè Gourmet - Perafita (Portogallo)

OUR SELECTION

Josè Gourmet is a Portuguese company, one of the smallest canning companies in the Iberian Peninsula, born in 2008 thanks to Adriano Casal Ribeiro, former pilot and company director, and Luis Mendonça, illustration teacher and artistic director of Josè Gourmet. An ambitious project of theirs, born with the aim of bringing to market a vast line of gastronomic products that tell the story of Portugal and its cuisine. We liked this truly unique line of fish preserves and pâtés, anchored in Portuguese tradition but winking at international gastronomy. Mendonça's artistic hand can be seen in the carefully crafted packaging, in which the irreverent and unconventional graphics of local illustrators explode, who have revisited the product in a caricatured way

SUGGESTIONS

Perfect for cicchetti, perhaps accompanied by a glass of white wine with mineral hints; interesting to try in a recipe with eggs
