Potato frico with "Radicchio Rosso di Treviso PGI" by Fabris

DESCRIPTION	Friulian frico made of potatoes and young cow's cheese with late "Radicchio Rosso di Treviso PGI"
APPEARANCE	Round pie with potatoes, cheese and pieces of late "Radicchio Rosso di Treviso PGI"
TASTE	Crunchy on the outside and soft on the inside; "Radicchio Rosso di Treviso PGI" gives a product that is well-suited to the autumn season
PRODUCER	Caseificio Fabris - Bertiole (UD)
OUR SELECTION	The producer of this frico intends to give value to some local preparations of the region, from their traditionality to the raw materials. Fabris does not use already made ingredients: the cheese is produced by local dairies and the potatoes are worked when fresh and are grown by local farmers
CURIOSITY	Frico made with potatoes is a deeply characteristic dish of Friuli Venezia Giulia region, only few ingredients are used but it is rich in flavor and territoriality
SUGGESTIONS	Heat the frico in a non-stick pan without oil until a crispy crust forms, or in the microwave for about two minutes without packaging
